ABOUT UJJAIN

Ujjain Mahakal is a prominent Hindu temple in Madhya Pradesh dedicated to Lord Shiva, housing one of the twelve sacred Jyotirlingas, the Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga, which uniquely faces south. It attracts devotees nationwide, especially during Maha Shivaratri, featuring grand decorations and midnight rituals. The daily Bhasma Aarti, where the deity is dressed in sacred ash, is also significant. Set by the Kshipra River, the temple offers a serene spiritual atmosphere, and visitors should follow the temple's guidelines for a fulfilling experience.
